

The Family Tribute

Weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning

Overseer Andrea Lucille Knox Roseboro, beloved daughter of the late Eugene Marshall, and Ada Knox Marshall, was born in Iredell County on February 11, 1953. She departed this life at Lake Norman Dialysis Center on Monday, February 10, 2020.

She graduated from Morningside High School, and attended Mitchell Community College, where she received an Associates Degree in Criminal Justice. She was a probation officer with the Iredell County Sherriff's Department. Andrea was an Overseer and Pastor of Interfaith Deliverance Ministries, a former director at Harris Park, the President of SAVE (Sisters Against Violence Everywhere), the NAACP, and a member of Christian Outreach.

Andrea was preceded in death by two husbands, Harry Bridges, Jr., and Charles Wesley Roseboro; a son, William Satterfield Jr., a sister, Janice Mott, a brother, Leroy Scott, a grandmother, Elizabeth Knox; and a grandmother who raised her, Odessa McClain.

She leaves to cherish the blessings and memories of her life, four daughters, Jacqueline (Leonard) King of Statesville; Leslie Griffin of Statesville, Regina Hartgrove of Charlotte, and Shenita Bridges of Statesville; a son, Carlos Satterfield of Troutman; grandchildren, Nakayla Griffin, Ronald Imes, Jr., Justin Bridges, Davin King, Jonathan King, Myla King, Raya Hartgrove, Reanna Hartgrove, Shaniya Griffin, Ryland Hartgrove, and Laila King; great grandchildren, Makenna and Madison Griffin-Byers; her siblings, Claudia Marshall Brown (Anthony) of San Antonio, Texas, Priscilla Cherry of Cummings, Georgia, Eugene Stockton of Virginia, Mary Scott, Albert Scott and Lori Crosby, all of Statesville, Allan Ramseur of Ohio and Andrea Ramseur of East Orange, New Jersey; special cousins, Kaye Gregory and William (Darlene) Knox; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

*When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not there to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes all filled with tears for me;
I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today,
While thinking of the many things, we didn't get to say.
I know how much you love me, as much as I love you,
And each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too;
So when tomorrow starts without me, think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me, I'm right here, in your heart.*

With Our Thanks

...that we through the patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope, (Romans 15) God has given us our church family, neighbors and dear friends, to help us as we go forward. God's Word has been manifested through your many expressions of sympathy and support; we praise God from whom all blessings flow. Thank you for honoring the memory of our beloved Overseer Roseboro and for remembering us during her illness and passing. In our risen Lord, we have peace that passes all understanding. The Family
