With Our Heartfelt Thanks

...that we through the patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope, (Romans 15) God has given us our church family, neighbors and dear friends, to help us as we go forward. God's Word has been manifested through your many expressions of sympathy and support; we praise God from whom all blessings flow. Thank you for honoring the memory of our beloved Ann and for remembering us during her passing. Your thoughtfulness will forever remind us of your love and support. May God continue to keep you in His tender care. In our risen Lord, we have peace that passes all understanding.

As We Remember

Mrs. Teresa Ann White Westmoreland

A smile for all, a heart of gold, one of the finest this world could hold Never selfish, always kind, these are the memories she leaves behind...

Mrs. Teresa Ann White Westmoreland, beloved daughter of Otis and Mary Carr White, was born in Iredell County on March 24, 1958. She departed this life on Wednesday, July 1, 2020, at Novant Health in Huntersville, NC.

She was a graduate of South Iredell High School in 1976, and was a member of Antioch Baptist Church in Cleveland. She was the President over the Pastor's Aide, Director over the Young Adult Choir, a member of Antioch Spiritual Singers, the Missionary Department, Praise and Worship Team and the Kitchen Committee. She was a loving mother, not only to her own children but to many others including the Youth and Young Adults of Antioch Baptist Church. Her infectious smile and bubbly personality would light up a room.

In 1977, she married Henry Thomas Westmoreland, who preceded her in death. Her paternal grandparents, Fred and Maggie White and her maternal grandparents, Espie and Sadie Carr, Etta Ree Partee, also preceded her in death.

She leaves to cherish the memory of her life in addition to her parents, Otis and Mary Carr White, her children, Tonika (Torrey) Miller of Cleveland, NC, Antwanette (Tyler) Kilgo of Monroe, NC and Okema (Tommy) Gilmore of Charlotte, NC; her grandchildren, Jazmine Scott, Elise Kilgo, Victoria Bost, Denzel Gilmore, Jaylah Gilmore, Torrey Miller, Jr., and Unique Williams; her great grandchildren, McKinsey Bost, Drayden Gilmore and Skylar Williams; her brothers, Frankie S. Washington, of Philadelphia and Otis (Arlene) White, Jr. of Mooresville; her sisters, Penny (Joe, II) Mauney and Novella (Edward) Lowe, both of Mooresville; her god-daughter, Phyllis (Nelson) Allen of Salisbury; her honorary grandchildren, Jayceon McKee, A. J. Culbertson, Jr., Averi Cuthbertson and Chase Farnum; her special friends, Elaine Rankin, Freda Mull, Darlene Davis, Debra Houston, Tammy Moon and Mary Standback; her aunts, Elsie Carr, Mary (Isaiah) Venning, Katie White, Mary Haynes and Margaret (Stanley) Flowers; a host of nieces, nephews, sisters-in-law, brothers-in-law, cousins, and friends including the Antioch Baptist Church Family, other relatives, neighbors, and friends.

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free.
Miss me a little, but not to long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we all shared
Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home
So when you are lonely, and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrow in doing good deeds,
Miss me, but let me go.*
