NEVER FORGET

*Never forget the joy
That he brought to all our lives,
The cheerful sound of his laughter,
Or the brightness in his eyes.*

*His cool laid back demeanor,
Or the stride in his walk;
His ability to make light of any situation,
And cracking jokes when he would talk.*

*The calmness in his voice,
The gentleness in his touch;
His genuine heart filled with love
That we will miss so much.*

*Hold on to the lifetime of memories,
The time spent and the moments we shared;
Never forget God's promise,
He won't put more on us than we can bear.*

*Where he is there is no more suffering,
No more illnesses, pain or harm;
Never forget he is with our Savior,
Wrapped lovingly in His arms.*

*By Ja'Cole Davis (niece)
Known to him as "Baby Girl"*

Acknowledgements

*We would like to say "Thank You" for your cards, food, flowers, and, most of all, your prayers
during our hour of bereavement.*

May God continue to bless and keep each of you.

Life's Reflections

Arthur Leon Davis was born to Mr. and Mrs. Bennie and Mary M. Wright Davis, Sr., on November 3, 1959, in Jacksonville, Florida. He was reared in a neighborhood where he was surrounded with loving relatives and friends. As a teenager, he received Christ and was baptized at Mt. Bethel Baptist Church, the family church, and placed on District #5, where his brother, Dea. Anthony Davis, Sr., is now District Leader. Arthur, better known as "Man," received his formal education in the local public schools.

Following in the footsteps of his father, Arthur learned the trade of brick masonry which provided an employable skill that was always in demand. His hobbies included fishing, landscaping and painting.

Arthur finished his earthly course on March 2, 2019, and left this world behind. What glory, unspeakable joy and peace in that home over there. He was preceded by his father, Bennie Davis, Sr. He is survived by his beloved children, Arthur Davis, Jr., Leon Taylor and Anthony Norris; loving mother, Mary Magdalene Davis; siblings, Bennie Davis, Jr. (Deborah), Deborah Mathis (Larry), Eileen Gresham, Satonya Wells (Darrell), Anthony Davis (Iris), Louise Alston, Gladys Sessions and Sharon Masline (David); aunts, Shirley Hinson, Gloria Roberts and Elouis Randall (Cornelius); uncles, Willie Wright and Eddie Wright (Catherine); a number of nieces, nephews, cousins, and many loving friends.
