A Fallen Limb

*Although a limb has fallen from the family tree,
Listen for the still small voice that says, "Grieve not for me.
Remember the best times, the laughter, the song,
The good life I lived while I was strong.
Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you;
Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest,
Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.
Continue traditions, no matter how small;
Go on with your life, don't worry about falls.
Although you may miss me, keep up your chin,
Until the day comes that we're together again."

Reflections of Life

Brother Phillip G. Adams

Brother Phillip G. Adams was born December 8, 1922, in Jacksonville, Florida, to Mr. and Mrs. Raymond and Nora Posey Adams. Reared in the Sandy Spur Hill neighborhood of Moncrief Springs (The Bottom), he attended the local public school in Mt. Bethel Missionary Baptist Church. The church served this community as a school, community meetinghouse and sanctuary of worship. He accepted Jehovah and was baptized in the faith. Brother Adams enlisted in the United States Army in 1941 and was honorably discharged. Later, he became employed with the Downtown Oldsmobile Company, retiring after many years of dedicated service. The "Bottom" was considered country until Jacksonville and the rest of Duval County were consolidated. Wild game was plentiful, and he was a skillful hunter, providing for his family whatever the kill of the day was - rabbit, coon, gopher, wild hog, opossum or squirrel.

Brother Adams celebrated 95 years on earth. He was preceded in death by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Adams; beloved wife, Mrs. Carrie B. Adams; brothers, Rev. Alfred Adams, Mr. Theodore Adams and Mr. Charlie Adams; sisters, Mrs. Geneva Graham and Mrs. Blessed Henderson; and a daughter, Mrs. Ruth Mae Mathis.

Left to cherish his memory are his beloved children, Mrs. Pearl M. Nathan (Willie), Mr. Cleveland Adams, Sr., and Mr. Alonzo Hall (Annie Bell); hosts of grandchildren, great grandchildren, great great grandchildren, and great great great grandchildren; a plethora of cousins, nephews and nieces, to include a supportive niece, Mrs. Joan Rosier; a close friend of the Adams family, Mrs. Hazel McMillon; and a multitude of other relatives and friends.
