

A Silent Tear

Just close your eyes and you will see
All the memories that you have of me;
Just sit and relax and you will find
I'm really still there inside your mind.

Don't cry for me now that I'm gone,
For I am in the land of song;
There is no pain, there is no fear,
So dry away that silent tear.

Don't think of me in the dark and cold,
For here I am no longer old;
I'm in that place that's filled with love,
Known to you all as "up above."

Her Life's Story

Lillian Miller, affectionately known as Aunt Lillie, was born May 31, 1941, in Garnett, South Carolina, to Martha Aiken and Samuel Edwards. Her loving family included brothers and sisters, John Sugar, Willie Sugar, Sr., Flossie Barrett, Alberta Tasher, Minnie Lou Watson and Earnestine Majett. The family moved from South Carolina to Suffolk, VA, and there she graduated from Suffolk's Booker T. Washington High School, Class of 1960. She then relocated to Jacksonville, FL, where she met and married William Miller in 1965.

Aunt Lillie was many things to her loved ones. She was kind, empathetic, unconditionally loving, strong willed, giving, witty, and so much more. She was a phenomenal hostess for over 50 years, and her door was always open for her family and friends. If you were lucky, you probably heard some of her "Aunt Lillie's Specialty Jokes" that weren't made for the faint of heart. Aunt Lillie always made sure her home was full of excitement and games for everyone to enjoy. The holidays were her favorite time of the year when she became the female version of Santa. Every year she made sure everyone had a gift under the tree, no matter what. She would even buy extra gifts, so that no one was left empty handed!

In her spare time, Aunt Lillie enjoyed fishing. She also was an expert when it came to putting puzzles together, and she loved watching unsolved mystery shows. She was a detective in her own right, and when she made up her mind, there was no going back! No matter what, Aunt Lillie was just a phone call away and often checked in on her family just to make sure they were all doing well.

Aunt Lillie Miller was preceded in death by her husband, her parents, and her brothers and sisters. She leaves a multitude of nephews, nieces, cousins, a goddaughter and friends to cherish her memory.
