

Obituary

Lundsy Nealy, the oldest of three children, was born in Bartow, GA, on March 26, 1926, to Mr. and Mrs. James and Mammie Harding Nealy. The family moved to Jacksonville Beach, FL, and later settled in Jacksonville, FL, where they became members of Second Missionary Baptist Church, under the pastorate of the late Rev. King David Britt, Sr.

Lundsy found employment at the Jacksonville Shipyards; however, his true craft was Brick Masonry, a trade that he learned from his father and mastered. This became his lifelong profession for over 60 years, and provided opportunities to not only work in Jacksonville, but in many other cities as well.

A natural comedian, Lundsy had a great sense of humor. He was a people person, and was known for his delicious, down home cooking. He also loved the beach, dancing, and traveling.

Lundsy was united in marriage to Jeannette Jones and they shared life together until she passed away in May 2010. Through their marriage, they became a perfectly blended family.

Ten years after the death of his beloved wife, Jeannette, Lundsy Nealy departed this life on May 30, 2020, at the age of 94. He was also preceded in death by his parents and his son, Lundsey Nealy.

Memories

You may miss me
But when you reminisce about me,
Think about my eternal greatness
For I have been set free.

You may miss me,
but know at heart I'm close;
As you did in life, continue to love me
But God loved me most.
