Turn Your Pain Into Power

Turn your hurt into healing, your wounds into wisdom and your pain into power.

Legacy of Peter

Peter Elroy Butler was born on June 9, 1960 in Charlotte Hall, Maryland, to the late Mary Alpheia Butler and the late William Lawrence Butler. He departed this life on Monday October 7, 2019 at Harford Memorial Hospital, Havre de grace, MD with his wife by his side.

Pete attended school in Prince George's County after graduation, Pete joined the United States Army and served for 6 years. After returning home from the Army he went on to work at Harford County public school for several years. He worked at Plastipack (Constar) packing (29 years) until his health declined. Pete was a member of Press Toward the Mark Ministry for many years before joining New Life Fellowship Church of God where he served as a Deacon and Church treasure. He attended faithfully until his health started to decline.

If you knew Pete, you knew he had a love for collecting hot wheels. Anytime he went out he had to collect one or two while leaving his wife sitting in the car, wondering why he was taking so long.

His love for his grandchildren was never ending. During his illness his grandchildren always brought a smile to his face no matter where he was.

When he attended church he sometimes sung in the choir. He loved singing "There's a Praise on the Inside" and "Lord You Been So Good". His favorite songs were "I Pray we all be Ready", and "hearing Jasmine sing "Break Every Chain" and Sa'Morya singing "Every Praise." He loved watching the dance team at church as well.

Pete leaves to cherish his memory his devoted and loving wife of 23 years Evangeline Butler, his children Anika (Rashard), Sharina, Pierre, William, Jade, Latora, and Rashad (Ginnea), his precious grandchildren; Shiyanna, SaMya, Sabrayah, Sariyah, Anderson, Ezekiel, Elias, Peyton, Parklynn, Kaden, Zakai, Ane'jah, Dasha, Vance, Nasir and Cameron, sisters; Litsha, Darlene and Tammy (James), his brother in law Alonzo and sister in law Mona (Larry), his God Daughter Jade and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins aunts and uncles and friends. He was proceeded in death by his brothers Jason and Malcom.

Sorrowfully submitted the Family,

Dad

By an Unknown Author

We'll always remember that special smile,
that caring heart,
that warm embrace,
you always gave us.
You being there for us through good and bad times, no matter what.
We'll always remember you Dad because they'll never be another one to replace you in our hearts, and the love we will always have for you.

A Sister's Love

Hearts will be sore, and hearts will sag, But you're with God now so I can be glad
The pain is over, no more strain,
So, in my heart your soul remains You're my friend and I am yours; I'll see you again at Heaven's Doors

Uncle

Of all the many blessings, however great or small,
To have had you for an uncle was the greatest one of all.
The family chain is broken now, and nothing seems the same,
But as God takes us one by one, the chain will link again.
