

Don't Cry For Me

*Don't cry for me. I will be okay.
Heaven is my home now, and this is where I'll stay.
Don't cry for me. I'm where I belong.
I want you to be happy, and try to stay strong.
Don't cry for me, It was just my time,
but I will see you someday, on the other side.
Don't cry for me, I am not alone.
The angels are with me, to welcome me home.
Don't cry for me, for I have no fear.
All my pain is gone, and Jesus took my tears.
Don't cry for me, this is not the end.
I'll be waiting here for you, when we meet again.*

OBITUARY

LULA MAE BARKLEY HOLLOWAY was born on November 13, 1935, the youngest child of the late Walter and Osie Love in Birmingham, Alabama. She departed this life peacefully at home beside her loving husband on January 8, 2020. In 1969 she met SGT Charles Holloway and they have been inseparable ever since.

Lula graduated from Ullman High School in Birmingham, Alabama and attended Alabama State with dreams of becoming a teacher.

Lula was a longstanding and active member of St. James A.M.E. Church. She served many roles over 50 plus years in schools, churches and community organizations.

Lula loved to guide and mentor children and young adults. She was a "frankly speaking woman" and loyal friend.

Lula leaves to cherish her memory her loving husband Charles Holloway with whom she spent over 52 years, 2 sons, Norman Barkley of Essex, Maryland and Alvin Holloway (Maria) of Huntsville, Alabama, 2 daughters, Tammy Holloway Walton of Lawton, Oklahoma and Terrie Dashiell (Eddie) of Randallstown, Maryland, 15 grandchildren, 10 great grandchildren, 5 Godchildren, a host of nieces and nephews and a multitude of family and friends.

Lula was preceded in death by her beloved son Patrick Barkley and several loved ones.
