

WHEN I MUST LEAVE YOU

When I must leave you for a little while.
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears
and hug your sorrow to you
through the years,
But start out bravely with a gallant smile;
and for my sake and in my name
Live on and do all things the same.
Feed not your loneliness on empty days,
But fill each waking hour in useful ways.
Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer
and I in turn will comfort you
and hold you near;
And never, never be afraid to die,
For I am waiting for you in the sky!

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sang a touching song
Or came and just sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent lovely flowers
If so, we saw them there.
Perhaps you sent or spoke comforting words
or helped us to pray.
Perhaps you were not there at all
Just thought of us that day.
Perhaps you prepared some tasty food
Or maybe furnished a car.
Perhaps you rendered services unseen
Right here or from afar.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you sincerely
Whatever the part.

Obituary

Ms. Krystal Kenya Williams, 29, of Greenville, South Carolina, passed away on Sunday, April 28, 2019, at Prisma Health-Upstate. Born on October 12, 1989, she was a daughter of Sandy Smith and the late Kathy Williams.

Krystal attended Southside High School. She became a member of Chosen and Ordained Ministries in February 2013. She was loved by her many co-workers in the Health and Services Division at the Greenville County Detention Center .

Left to cherish many fond and loving memories are her father, Sandy Smith of Greenville; her son, Zion Hampton of Greenville; a brother, Bradley "Bitty" Williams of Greenville; her grandmother, Edith B. Williams of Greenville; caretaker and godmother, Maggie (Eugene) Fisher of Greenville; four aunts, Wella Williams, Jackie Williams, Mary Williams and Shandlers (Roger) Robinson; six goddaughters; and a host of other relatives and friends.
