Acknowledgement

In times like these, it is a source of great comfort to have friends who care.

Your many expressions of kindness,
concern and helpfulness have done much to sustain us.

For these good deeds, please accept our sincere thanks and appreciation.

May God's Blessings abound with you always.

The Family

Please be advised that the Greenville County Sheriff's Department and the City of Greenville Police Department no longer provide escort services for funeral processions. Therefore, all drivers should obey traffic signals. Persons who are not riding in the funeral home limousines should meet the family at the cemetery.

Obituary

Mrs. Helena Jenkins, affectionally known as "Helen", the daughter of the late Calvin Randolph and the late Annie Mae Rodgers, was born on January 9, 1939, in Ware Shoals, South Carolina. Her Heavenly Father called her home to rest on May 10, 2019.

She was a member of Mt. Olive Baptist Church and later became a member of New Beginnings Baptist Church.

She retired from Specialty Shearing & Dyeing in 1994, and later retired from Walmart in 2015, after fifteen years of dedicated service.

Helena Jenkins was united in holy matrimony for sixty years to the late Sherell Jenkins and their union was blessed by three children.

Surviving are two daughters, Jacqueline Hall and Doris Jenkins, both of Greenville, SC; one son, Erich (Stephanie) Jenkins of Greenville, SC; one sister, Olivia (Charles) Cox of Ware Shoals, SC; two brothers, James (Essie) Rogers of Detroit, MI, and Joseph (Diane) Green of Ware Shoals, SC; ten grandchildren, nine great-grandchildren, one great-great-grandchild; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Your story has unfolded with pages of unconditional love and unshakeable strength

The marathon you ran for your family,
you ran the longest length

We will cherish the moments spent with you old and new Through all the memories, your love shines through
Your presence touched the world in a small meaningful way.

Your suffering is over and now you will get to rejoice every day.

The love you planted in us will be lifetime long
For all eternity, we will remain Jenkins strong.
