

DON'T WORRY

Don't worry about me, Loved Ones, About my sorrows, nor my pain
There was a chariot sitting and waiting for me It was marked in Jesus' Name.
Don't try to understand the reason it happened
It might entangle your mind
Believe that God is still in control And my home going is divine I know it's hard to understand How such a thing could be.
Darkness sometimes can create a light
All of us need to see Trust in God with all your heart,
He will help you make it through Old things in your life will pass away
And all things, He'll make new.

A Message to My Daddy

To the first man to ever show me unconditional love, I am going to miss you more than you can imagine. I'm going to miss your hugs, your laugh, us sitting in the living room watching sports yelling at the tv together, or just us sitting down together and having you talk to me about life. I'm going to miss your spirit. But, I know that you're up there looking down on me and you're still going to be here holding my hand and guiding me through. Days are going to be rough without you but, I have the good memories to see me through. I love you so much daddy and I can't wait to see your loving face again. Fly high big guy, I'll cherish you forever.

Your Daughter, Bri

Obituary

Mr. Christopher Antonio “Chris” Taylor, 63, of 21 Valentine Street, Greenville, South Carolina, passed away on Saturday, May 11, 2019, at St. Francis Hospital after a brief illness. Born in Greenville County, he was a son of the late Hobie Taylor, Jr., and Jo Ellen Sullivan of Greenville.

He was preceded in death by his grandmother, Gladys Mitchell Taylor; a brother, Hobie Taylor, III; and a special friend of the family, Charles Rosemond.

Chris graduated from Greenville Senior High School, after which he attended Greenville Technical College. He was employed with Cincinnati Milacron in Fountain Inn, South Carolina. Later, Chris worked as a Machinist at Baldor Electric for over 20 years until he retired in 2017.

Surviving, in addition to his mother, are his daughter, Kristen Brianna Taylor of Charlotte, NC; sisters, Cheryl L. Taylor and Sheila Brooks, both of Greenville; a stepsister, Carolyn Riley of Mauldin; a sister-in-law, Diane (Bug) Taylor of Greenville; a brother, Erskine Taylor of Greenville; stepbrothers, Tim Riley of Gaffney and Bobby Riley of McCormick; a special aunt, Sue Taylor of Taylors; nephews, Terry (Miosha) Taylor of Mint Hill, NC, and Marques Taylor of Greenville; nieces, Lakisha Taylor of Piedmont, Shawana Taylor, Miya Taylor and Tierra Taylor, all of Greenville; and a host of other nieces, nephews, and other family and friends..
