

FORGIVE ME

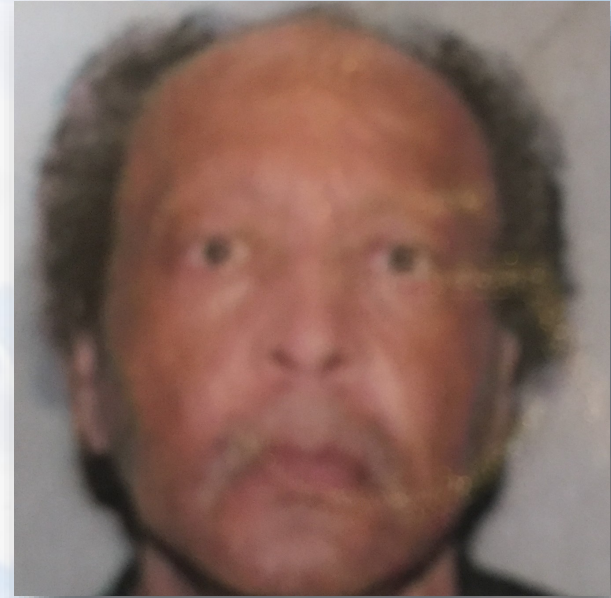

*Forgive me for the things I should have done,
and didn't do.*

*So let my memories always be with you.
Now my battling days have ended at last,
And for my dreams that never came to pass.
I know you've done all you could do,
All the pain and miseries I put you through and the times I wouldn't listen,
and had to go my way;
I know prayers were prayed;
that I might change some day.
But now the Lord has called me home;
No more streets and places to roam;
Now I'm gone to take my rest,
Somewhere in that land;
Where a loving God knows best.*

OBITUARY

Mr. John Robert Dukes, 72, of Greenville, South Carolina, passed on May 12, 2019, at his home. He was a son of the late K.T. Wyman and Lula Arger Dukes.

He was graduate of Clearview High School in Easley, South Carolina. At an early age, he was a member of Easley Chapel United Methodist Church.

He was preceded in death by a sister, Linda Collins; and a brother, Lee Alfred Dukes.

Surviving are one daughter, Lendric “Lynn” Williams (Tyrone Gilmore) of Greenville, SC; three sisters, Emma Jean Dukes, and Dorothy Brazeal, both of Easley, SC, and Mary Jones of Pickens, SC; one brother, L.K. Dukes of Easley, SC; one grandchild, Justin Williams; two great-grandchildren; and a host of other relatives and friends.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to give a special thanks to my friends and fiancé, Tyronne Gilmore for keeping me uplifted during this time of bereavement. Special thanks to Shoals Creek Baptist Church and Easley Union Baptist Church for your kind words of encouragement and support.

Lynn Williams
