

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
and the sun has set on me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
why cry for a soul set free.

Miss me a little, but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low,
Remember the love that we once shared,
miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey that we all must take,
and each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
a step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick of heart,
go to the friends we know.
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds,
miss me, but let me go.

Goodnight

Goodnight! Goodnight! Goodnight!

Sad, but sudden was the call of one so dearly loved by all.
A bitter pain, a shock severe it was to part with one so dear.
We'll often sit and think of you and speak of how you died.

To think you could not say
Good-bye before you closed your eyes.
For all of us you did your best, O God,
grant you your eternal rest.
