Obituary

Mr. James Calvin Rosemond, Jr., 57, of Greenville, South Carolina, transitioned from life to enter into eternal rest on Monday June 17, 2019, at Patewood Rehabilitation and Healthcare Center. He was a son of Susie Greene Rosemond and the late James Calvin Rosemond, Sr.

Calvin was a graduate of Wade Hampton High School and formerly worked at Nutra Manufacturing Company.

He was a dedicated member of the Queen Street Baptist Church, where he served in various ministries until his health declined: the Ensemble Choir, the Young Adult Choir and the Male Chorus; and formerly was active in the Usher, and Singles Ministries. He also was a former member of the Nicholtown Community Choir.

He was preceded in death by his father, James Calvin Rosemond, Sr.; his grandparents, J.C. and Gladys Rosemond and Alvin and Delphia Greene.

Left to cherish many fond and loving memories are his mother, Susie Greene Rosemond of the home; one daughter, Crystal Beggs of Greenville; one sister, Michelle (William) Pope of Jonesboro, GA; two brothers, Michael (Linda) Rosemond of Columbia, and Charles Anthony (Donna) Davis of Travelers Rest, SC; two grandchildren, Sirgio Sligh and Adore Beggs; three aunts, Rosa Montgomery and Eliza (Alvin) Dennis, both of Simpsonville, SC and Betty Greene of Greenville, SC; three uncles, Alvin Greene of Washington, DC, Isaiah Greene of Greenville, SC, and Wallace Greene of San Francisco, CA; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Forget Me Not

Forget me not
As time goes by,
For you can find
me in the sky.

Forget me not
For we're apart,
For you can carry me
Within your heart.

Forget me not
Although I've gone,
For my memory
Will always live on.

Instead, remember
In every special way,
Keep me close to your heart
we'll meet again one day.
