

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Life Story

Mrs. Maggie Lee Sullivan was born January 4, 1924, to the late Mr. Columbus Abraham Wakefield and Mrs. Della Mae Bradley-Wakefield in Greenville, South Carolina. Maggie made her entry into Heaven on July 8, 2019, at McCall's Hospice House in Simpsonville, South Carolina.

Mrs. Sullivan was a Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA) and was employed as a Dietician for Crucible Chemical.

She was an active member of Mountain View Baptist Church, where she served as a member of Circle #3 and #5, a Senior Women's Missionary, and Deaconess Board. She also served as a committee member in planning for her church's participation in the Southern Baptist Convention. She volunteered for Meals on Wheels, and was an active participant in senior activities at the local YWCA, Tabernacle Baptist Church and Mount Pleasant Baptist Church. She enjoyed travel and activism within her residential community, Kennedy Park. .

Her personal sources of enjoyment were cooking for family and friends, perfecting her cooking skills with classes, gardening and sewing.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Rufus "Sonny" Sullivan; and her siblings, Lois Young, Mary L. Armer, Mable Wright, James Roy, Columbus Jr., Willie, Jacob and Joseph Wakefield.

To carry on the family legacy, she leaves behind: two daughters, Erica Smith of Charleston, and Della Bailey Benisrael of Greenville; three sons, Rufus Sullivan, Jr. and Nathaniel (Mary Ann) Sullivan, both of Greenville, and Michael (Delphine) Sullivan of Fayetteville, NC; one brother, William Wakefield of Orange Grove, CA, Wakefield; sixteen grandchildren; twenty-five great-grandchildren; three great-great-grandchildren; and a host of other relatives and friends.
