Acknowledgement

In all times and through all things, friendship is a steadfast reminder that love endures. We wish to express our sincere appreciation for all acts of kindness shown to us during this time of bereavement. May God bless all of you.

Please be advised that the Greenville County Sheriff's Department and the City of Greenville Police Department no longer provide escort services for funeral processions. Therefore, all drivers should obey traffic signals. Persons who are not riding in the funeral home limousines should meet the family at the cemetery.

Obituary

Mr. Willie A. "W.A." Richardson, 69, of Honea Path, South Carolina, passed on Tuesday, August 6, 2019, at his home. He was a son of the late Ernest Simpson and Estelle Richardson.

He was a graduate of Geer-Gantt High School and earned a Associates degree in Arts from Anderson College. He was CEO/President of Times Pest Control Specialists, Inc., a member of the Better Business Bureau, and South Carolina Pest Management Professionals.

He was preceded in death by a brother, Lewis Richardson.

Left to cherish many fond and loving memories are two daughters, Tracy Richardson of Clinton, and Crystal Arnold of Honea Path; two sons, Rancy (Freida) Richardson of Honea Path, and James Wright of California; a special friend, Rosa Marie Golden; two sisters, Rev. Dr. Stella (Arthur) Dotson of Ware Shoals, and Linda Bussey of Greenwood; one brother, James (Bernadette) Richardson of Taylors; five grandchildren, Renee Richardson, Kendra Anderson, Tristin Arnold, Mackie Walker and Clifton Arnold; seven great-grandchildren; nephews; nieces; and a host of other relatives and friends.
