

#151 - He Will Call

1. Life, like a mist,
appears for just a day,
Then disappears tomorrow.
All that we are can quickly fade away,
Replaced with tears and sorrow.
If a man should die, can he live again?
Hear the promise God has made:

(CHORUS)

He will call; The dead will answer.
They will live at his command.
For he will have a longing
For the work of his own hand.
So have faith, and do not wonder,
For our God can make us stand.
And we will live forever,
As the work of his own hand.

2. Friends of our God,
though they may pass away,
Will never be forsaken.
All those asleep who
in God's mem'ry stay,
From death he will awaken.
Then we'll come to see all that life can be:
Paradise eternally.

(CHORUS)

He will call; The dead will answer.
They will live at his command.
For he will have a longing
For the work of his own hand.
So have faith, and do not wonder,
For our God can make us stand.
And we will live forever,
As the work of his own hand.

Obituary

Mr. Luther James “Luke” Freeman was born on November 9, 1929, in Anderson County, South Carolina, to Julius and Maude Freeman Williams. After growing up in Anderson County, SC, he moved to Greenville, SC, where he married his wife, Earline Cox Freeman.

Even though he became disabled as a young man, he continued to work in agriculture and led a productive life raising his children and spending time with family. He loved going fishing and would often take his children. He also enjoyed playing checkers, singing, western TV shows and spending time with his family and talking about his 6 grands, 14 great-grands and 5 great-great-grands.

A lover of the Bible, he continued to read and study the Bible. He would talk about it to anyone willing to have a discussion.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Julius and Maude Freeman Williams; his wife, Earline Freeman; a son, Michael Freeman; and a sister, Dorothy Freeman.

Luther leaves behind his daughter, Dorothy (David) Smith of Piedmont, SC; a son, Jonathon Freeman of Greenville, SC; grandsons, David Smith, Jr., of Greenville, SC, Derek (Sandra) Smith of Simpsonville, SC, and Patrick (Brandy) Smith of Fountain Inn, SC; granddaughters, Sonya (Melvin) Jackson of Piedmont, SC, Moesha Freeman of Greenville, SC, and Dutches (Willie) Williams of Greenville, SC; fourteen great-grandchildren; six great-great-grandchildren; and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.

Life Without End

1. Can you see with your mind's eye,
Peoples dwelling together?
Sorrow has passed. Peace at last!
Life without tears or pain.

(CHORUS)

Sing out with joy of heart!
You too can have a part.
Live for the day when you'll say,
“Life without end, at last!”

2. In those days all will be young,
All at peace with Jehovah.
Troubles are gone, from now on,
No need to weep or fear.

3. Paradise all will enjoy
As we sing of God's glory.
Long as we live, we will give Honor and praise to God.
