Acknowledgement

In times like these, it is a source of great comfort to have friends who care.

Your many expressions of kindness, concern and helpfulness have done much to sustain us.

For these good deeds, please accept our sincere thanks and appreciation.

May God's Blessings abound with you always.

Please be advised that the Greenville County Sheriff's Department and the City of Greenville Police Department no longer provide escort services for funeral processions. Therefore, all drivers should obey traffic signals. Persons who are not riding in the funeral home limousines should meet the family at the cemetery.

Obituary

Mrs. Betty Jean Williams, 73, of Greenville, South Carolina, departed this life on September 3, 2019, at Prisma Health Upstate. She was a daughter of the late Eugene Jackson and Frances Sloan Hewins.

She attended Greenville Technical College and worked at General Electric Company for 22 years.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Frances Sloan Hewins; three sisters, Barbara Elaine Thompson, Everlyn Adams and Beverly Brown; and a brother, Dale Hewins.

Left to cherish many fond memories are one daughter, Deidre (Halbert) Brockman of Greenville; two sons, Robert Williams of Greenville, and Kevin Law of Anderson; one sister, Judy Williams of Greenville, three brothers, Gregory Hewins and Mitchell Sloan, both of Greenville, and Glen Hewins of Ohio; four grand-children, Daniel Brockman, Natalie Brockman, Shanea Brockman and Robbie Elise Williams; seven great-grand-children; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Psalm 23

(A Psalm of David.) The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.
