

My Last Request

Please don't say that I gave up, just say that I gave in.
Don't say I lost the battle, for through God the victory's won.
Please don't say how good I was, just that I did my best.
Just say I tried my best to give, the most I could, not less.
Please don't give me wings or halos, for that's for God to do.
I want no more than I deserve, no extras, just my due.
Don't give expensive flowers, or talk in soft, hushed tones.
Don't be concerned about me now,
I'm with God, I've made it home.
Don't talk about what could have been,
it's over and it's done.
Just see to all my family's needs, especially the little ones.
When you draw a picture of me, don't draw me as a saint.
I've done some good, I've done some wrong,
so please use all your paint.
Not just the brighter, lighter tones,
use some grays and darks.
In fact, don't put me down on canvas,
just paint me in your hearts.
Don't just remember good times, but remember too the bad.
For life is full of many things, some happy and some sad.
But if you must do something, then I have one last request.
Forgive me any wrong I've done,
and with the love that's left,
Thank God for my soul's resting,
thank God for I've been blessed.
Thank God for all who loved me...
Praise God who loved me best.

Obituary

Ms. Annie Maude Jackson, 70, of Greenville, South Carolina, transitioned to her Heavenly home on Saturday, September 7, 2019, at Accordius Healthcare in Hendersonville, North Carolina. She was a daughter of the late Willie and Arnie McCullough Jackson.

She was preceded in death by her brother, Willie Jackson, Jr.

Left with many treasured memories are one son, Rafael Rosemond of Greenville; two sisters, Mary (Bobby) Chapman and Earline Thompson, both of Greenville; one brother, Robert Jackson, Sr., of Greenville; four grandchildren, Aaliyah Rosemond, Aajah Rosemond, Quran Rosemond and A'lona Rosemond; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Acknowledgement

The family of Annie Maude Jackson would like to express thanks to those who share our grief during this hour of bereavement. All expressions of love at the passing of our loved one and all other acts of kindness will be acknowledged at a later date.

May God bless each of you.
