Farewell to Uncle George Burton

It's time to say good-bye to a good man;
To make everybody happy, he did all he can.
He loved socializing and talking to people,
And many of us loved talking to him.
He had such a personality that makes him a shining star.
While he was living, this made him get ahead and far;
He left behind grandchildren, three daughters and two sons;
Without him being here anymore, it's no more fun.
He also left behind many nieces and many nephews.
His passing away brought about the saddest news.
A prayer dedicated to Uncle George Burton:
Oh Heavenly Father in Heaven up above;
Who gave Uncle George the heart to love.
The Angels came by his side and whispered in his ears;
Come on George, you've got to leave here.
There is a better place for you to enter to rest.
Knowing all the pain and suffering you went through,
When you were on earth, you did your best.
Rest in peace Uncle George; we love you and miss you.

Love Always,
Joyce Hawthorne Williams
