

A PRAYER TO MY LORD

LORD,
Keep our hearts and minds
From being so confused.

LORD,
Hear my prayers
Humans are not perfect
Every breath we take
Is very much a sin
The love that you share
Will never end
It comes repeatedly again.

LORD,
Your love makes a happy home
From the blood you have shed
Brings love in the hearts
Of all who do not understand.
Send us blessings from Heaven
To guard our doors below
For man does not know.

LORD,
We place our hands in yours
For guidance's to the promise land
The Faith we have in you
Keeps us holding your hand
While we take our stand.

Thank you,
LORD,
For carrying us through
From the old and to the new.
AMEN and AMEN

Love, Mom

Acknowledgement

In times like these, it is a source of great comfort to have friends who care.
Your many expressions of kindness, concern and helpfulness have done much to sustain us.
For these good deeds, please accept our sincere thanks and appreciation.
May God's Blessings abound with you always.

Obituary

Ms. Ernika “Nika” VaShaun Vogt, 36, of Greenville, South Carolina, passed away on Saturday, September 28, 2019, at Prisma Health-Upstate. Born on January 28, 1983, she was a daughter of E. Pierre Vogt, III, and Connie Tomlin-Vogt.

“Nika” as she was affectionately known, attended Southside High School and furthered her education in Accounting and Finance at Greenville Technical College, Brown Mackie College and Strayer University. She was loved by her coworkers and customers in the Accounting and Inkwell Design Services.

Left to cherish many loving memories are her father, E. Pierre Vogt, III; her mother and caretaker, Connie Tomlin-Vogt; her daughter and caretaker, Estiny Vogt; her son and caretaker, Michael Allen, III; her sister, Engrid Vogt; two brothers, E. Pierre Vogt, IV, and Emmitt Vogt, both of Greenville, SC; maternal grandparents, Johnnie (Miriam) Roman, Sr., of Sumter, SC; three nieces, Kassidi Grant, Khloe Grant and Emyne Vogt, all of Greenville, SC; three nephews, Jh’Kese Vogt, Ja’Kyus Vogt and Emir Vogt, all of Greenville, SC; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.
