

Grandma

What a wonderful grandmother you were.

Your smile was made of sunshine.

Your heart was made of happiness.

Your eyes were made of shining bright stars. Your cheeks were as soft as cotton.

We will always remember this wonderful grandmother who really cared. This wonderful grandmother was our everything, our backbone, our piece to our puzzle. You gave us smiles, laughter, love, happiness and watermelon. This wonderful grandma who would make us cakes and let us play with her glass dolls.

We had a wonderful grandmother and that's the way it will always be. She's still keeping her eyes on us, so let's make sure she will like what she sees.

PS. I will always love you grandma and I will miss you so much!
Forever and always .

Your first great-grandbaby,
Nylia

Obituary

Mrs. Almeda Elise Taylor was born on April 4, 1940, in Greenville, South Carolina. She was a daughter of the late Emma Taylor-Sullivan and stepfather, Luther Sullivan. She closed the last chapter of her beautiful life on November 7, 2019, at Seasons Hospice and Palliative Care at Harper Hospital in Detroit, Michigan.

She was a graduate of Bryson High School and a member of the Order of Eastern Stars, Ruth Chapter #69, since 1977, where she previously served as the Worthy Matron and other positions. She was a faithful and dedicated member of Cedar Grove Missionary Baptist Church.

Almeda was preceded in death by her beloved sons, Barry and Sean Taylor; and three siblings, John “Wink”, Gerald and Ronald “JoJo” Sullivan.

Left to celebrate her life are one sister, Lorraine G. “Gwen” (Thomas “Pete”) Akins of Detroit, MI; two brothers, Bobby (Teddy) Donald and Roman (Ella) Sullivan, both of Detroit, MI; one daughter, Evelyn L. Little of Spartanburg, SC; two sons, Anthony Taylor and Silvester Taylor, Sr., both of Greenville, SC; eight grandchildren, Carlos L. Taylor; LaTasha A. Taylor; Darcel S. Taylor; Travis S. Little; Brittany M. Taylor; Silvester V. Taylor, Jr.; Sharon A. Taylor and Sean P. Taylor; sixteen great-grandchildren; and a host of other relatives and friends.
