

She loves to sing when no one could hear
She sings, "Hello!" to the sunshine
She lights up the stars of night sky
She listens to the birds in the day
She craves for the sunset in the dawn

She sings when garden blooms
She hums when the sorrow looms
She sings her pain away
She sings her love today...

---ShreYa GupTa

Flower Attendants

Rita Barksdale	Jammie Golden
Stacy Littlejohn	Thaya Posley
Gladys Satterwhite	Gladys Sherman

Pall Bearers

Bennie Herring	Ron Littlejohn
Keith Jones	Paul Satterwhite
Perry Satterwhite	Bruce Sweeney

Acknowledgement

The family of Evelyn Little wishes to extend our sincere appreciation to Wren Hospice, Woodbridge Senior Living, family and friends for constant care and support.

Interment

Cedar Grove Missionary Baptist Church
Cemetery

In Loving Memory
of
Ms. Evelyn Taylor Little

Saturday, November 23, 2019
1:00pm
Cedar Grove Missionary Baptist Church
206 Moore Street
Simpsonville, South Carolina 29681

Order of Service

Pastor Brian Starkes, Presiding

Mt. Olive Baptist Church, Anderson, South Carolina

Prelude

ProcessionalClergy, Family and Friends

SelectionCedar Grove Praise Team
When We all Get to Heaven

Scripture Readings:

Old TestamentMin. Jeanie Smith

Cedar Grove Missionary Baptist Church

New TestamentMin. Tracy Starkes

Mt. Olive Baptist Church

PrayerRev. Benard Simpson
Cedar Grove Missionary Baptist Church

SoloMr. Bryant Dean

Remarks:

Ms. Yvonne Posley (Cousin)

Ms. Louise Moon (Sunday School Teacher)

Church Resolution.....Michelle Rice

Tribute.....Michael Henderson Concert Choir

Words of ComfortPastor Kenneth Dean

Recessional

Obituary

Ms. Evelyn Taylor Little was born in August of 1962, in Greenville, South Carolina, to the parentage of Fred H. Dean, Sr., and Almeda Elise Taylor. She departed this life on Sunday, November 17, 2019.

She graduated from Southside High School in Greenville. She worked diligently, as a manufacturing associate, for several years at Hoechst Celanese. She was a devoted member of Cedar Grove Missionary Baptist Church and its various church choirs.

Evelyn was preceded in death by her parents, Fred H. Dean, Sr., and Almeda Elise Taylor.

She is survived by one son, Travis (Erica) Little of Woodruff, SC; two sisters, Angela (Peter) Joachim of Las Vegas, NV and Roslyn Gowens of Washington, DC; five brothers, Anthony Taylor, of Greenville, SC, Fred (Emily) Dean, Jr., of Simpsonville, SC, Bryant (Perky) Dean of Mauldin, SC, Sylvester Taylor of Greenville, SC, and Rev. Kenneth (Mercedes) Dean of Belton, SC; two grandchildren, Olivia and Taylor Little; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends, with special mention to Min. Tracy (Brian) Starkes.