

Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that once we shared
Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the master plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at all the things we used to do
Miss me, but let me go.

Acknowledgement

In this sad hour when our hearts are broken,
we find comfort in knowing that GOD is good.
He is in control.
We look to Him for the goodness, guidance, calmness, and strength we now desperately need.
Thank you for your
visits, flowers,
and your prayers
during our bereavement.

Obituary

Miss Cierra Bobbi-Lea Wallace 19, was born in Greenville, South Carolina, on July 27, 2000, and departed this life on November 17, 2019. She was a daughter of Lorraine and Isaac Atewogbola.

Cierra was a loving and caring person. She had a heart to serve others and always gave back to the community. She always had a smile and a kind word. She graduated from Stagg High School in 2018, and was attending Delta College in California. She was an angel and God called her home. She will be missed by all.

Left to cherish many fond and loving memories, along with her parents, are four sisters, Miranda Smith, Brittany Rhone, Abony Rhone, and Jasmine Rhone, all of Greenville, SC; two brothers, Phillip Rhone and Darrell Wallace of Greenville, SC; three nephews; four nieces; three aunts; six uncles; one great-aunt; one great-uncle; and a host of other relatives and friends.
