

THE SHEPHERD'S PSALM

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall
Not want. He maketh me to lie
Down in green pastures: he
Leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: he leadeth
Me in the paths of righteousness
For his name's sake. Yea, though I
Walk through the valley of the
Shadow of death I will fear no evil:
For thou art with me; thy rod and
Thy staff they comfort me. Thou
Preparest a table before me in the Presence of mine enemies: thou
Anointest my head with oil; my
Cup runneth over. Surely goodness
And mercy shall follow me all the
Days of my life: and I will dwell
In the house of the Lord forever.

Obituary

Mr. Jerome “Juke” Hatton, 78, of Greenville, South Carolina, passed on Monday, November 25, 2019, at his home. He was a son of the late Lawrence Odell and Virginia Butler Hatton.

He attended Sterling High School and later became an entrepreneur. He was a member of The Equipping Center in Greenville.

“Juke” was preceded in death by three sisters, Constance Hatton, Cynthia Hatton and Yvonne Hatton; and one brother, Joel N. Hatton.

Surviving are one daughter, Jermaine McGriff of Connecticut; his companion, Betty McGriff of New York; one sister, Delores Brooks of Greenville; two brothers, Gene T. Hatton of Greenville and Lawrence Hatton, Jr., of Easley; two grandchildren, Chasity McGriff and Avery McGriff; his companion’s children, Karen McGriff, Rachel McGriff and Allen McGriff, all of New York and a host of other relatives and friends.

Acknowledgement

Special thanks to my niece, Carolyn Brooks, for standing by me during my time of need. Special thanks also to the Irby and Hudgens families for all they have done for me along with many family and friends.
