

In Her Words...

This April I'll be 42! For the last 5 years I really didn't know how old I was because I'm so blessed. When I was 16, I was diagnosed with a kidney disease that said I would not see 35 or have any children. I'm so blessed to have met Boris Roberts aka "Honey" to have come into my life and donate to me his kidney on March the 11th the year 2000, even though his purpose was to keep me around a little longer to torture me (lol). Along with him he brought a baby boy that I have been truly blessed to be a part of Chris Roberts life. Thank God for my team. I love you guys and all those who supported me - Feeling loved.

~Felicia Renee Roberts
March 17, 2015

Acknowledgement

The family of Felicia Renee Roberts wishes to warmly thank you for your comforting words and acts of kindness in our time of sadness.

Celebrating the Life of

Mrs. Felicia Renee Roberts

Saturday, December 7, 2019 - 11:00am

I-85 Church of Christ
10 Lone Tree Court
Greenville, South Carolina 29605
Brother Albert Scurry, Minister

Order of Service

Bro. Stacy Davis, Presiding

Prelude

Processional.....Clergy, Family and Friends

Opening Selection.....Bro. Randal Dulin

Scripture Readings:

Old Testament.....Bro. Ben Downs

New Testament....Bro. Willie Seawright

Prayer.....Bro. John Austin

Selection.....Bro. Randal Dulin

Remarks:

Valorie Simmons (Cousin's Perspective)

Vonetta Brown (Friend's Perspective)

Anita Davis (Church Member's Perspective)

Selection.....Bro. Randal Dulin

Eulogy.....Bro. Albert Scurry

Committal/Prayer/Benediction

Recessional

Obituary

Mrs. Felicia Renee Fe Fe Roberts, 46, of Easley, South Carolina, transitioned on Tuesday, December 3, 2019, at Bon Secours St. Francis Hospital Downtown. She was the daughter of Peggy J. Griffin Kennedy and the late Russell S. Kennedy.

Felicia attended Richland County schools in Columbia, SC, and was a proud member of the Eau Claire class of 1991. She attended Greenville Technical College, where she studied Nursing. She began her professional career with the Greenville Hospital System and worked until her health failed. But in typical Felicia fashion, she could not be idle, so she went to work for Alorica/Samsung in 2014. She worked as often as her health permitted.

Felicia obeyed the gospel at the I85 Church of Christ and was added to the Lord's church in 1994. She loved the Lord and was active in the Ladies Bible class, even facilitating the class on occasion. She was known for her sweet spirit, encouraging words, quick wit, and ready smile.

Surviving along with her mother, are her devoted husband, Boris Roberts of the home; one son, Christopher DeShaun Roberts of Greenville; one granddaughter, Aaliyah Marie Roberts of Greenville; in-laws, Brunson and Priscilla Roberts and Antonia Roberts, all of Greenville; special cousins, Valorie (Keith) Simmons and Cynthia (Montauge) Johnson, both of Greenville; an aunt, Dessie Crowell of Lexington, SC; two uncles, Daryl Chavis of Paris, TX, Norman Griffin, Jr., of Easley, SC; and a host of other relatives and friends.