Mrs. Rosa Lee Mack, a daughter of the late Luke and Lucille Everette, departed this life on December 19, 2019.

She grew up in Greenville, South Carolina and attended the Greenville County Public Schools. She was an avid reader who loved to collect books, often sharing them with others. She became a licensed cosmetologist in 1952 and received a certificate in Interior Decorating from Clemson University Extension in 1975.

She was a member of Allen Temple AME Church where she was active in various clubs and a member of the Stewardess Board.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Warren Woolridge Mack and a son, Warren Woolridge Mack, Jr.

Cherished memories will always be with her two daughters, Mary Lee Mack Smith of Columbia, SC, and Wanda Marie Mack of San Rafael, CA; six grandchildren of whom she was very proud, Warren Cook, Christopher Cook, Jr., Christy Cook, Rosa Lee Mack, Sheila Mack and Wanda Mack; and a host great-grandchildren, other relatives and friends.

*We were blessed to have our mother in our lives to share so many precious moments through the years, forming a loving unbreakable bond.
