

This will be a celebration.
For you are not gone, you're still by our side.
So today we will rejoice!

We were not ready.
We had more talks to have, more laughs ,
and more memories to create.
But, GOD needed you more so
Those things will have to wait .

This won't be a time for tears.
We know you wouldn't have that .
For who you were to us, all the hearts you touched ,
and all the smiles you gave
Yes! This will be a celebration!

Nothing could prepare us.
Because when you love someone you want them to stay forever .
But, your heart was too good for forever
and your soul was too great for here and now.

So This Is A Celebration.
For the mother , for the daughter,
For the sister, for the wife, for the grandmother, for the friend you were to us all . You've gained your wings .
Now it's time to rest. No more suffering here.
We will miss you .

We will have our days where we will mourn you
We will have our moments where we need you
We will have our days where we just can't take the pain .
But , we will press on . Because we know that's what you would have wanted us to do.

We Thank You For your existence.

In Loving Memory

Mrs. Gloria Jean Goldsmith

Tuesday, January 7, 2019 - 3:00pm
Watkins, Garrett & Woods Mortuary
1011 Augusta Street
Greenville, South Carolina 29605
Rev. Victor Gardner, Eulogist
Pastor, Christ Worship Center

Obituary

Ms. Gloria Jean “Glo” Goldsmith, 67, departed this life on December 24, 2019, at Comer Health Rehabilitation in Comer, Georgia. She was the daughter of the late J.D. Jackson and Betty Boston and was raised by Louise Aiken.

She was preceded in death by her parents; a grandmother, Josephine Boston; two aunts, Mary Ann Turner and Joyce Wofford; and two uncles, Jerry Boston and Raymond Boston.

Left to cherish many fond memories are two daughters, April Watson of Taylors and Andreana Goldsmith of Greer; one son, Otis Goldsmith of Greenville; four grandchildren, Taya Goldsmith, Ronell Byrd, Shybreia Leverett and Javontae Griffin; seven great-grandchildren; two uncles, Nathaniel Boston and Curtis “Jack” Boston, both of Greenville; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Services Entrusted to Watkins, Garrett & Woods Mortuary, Inc.
1011 Augusta Street
Greenville, SC 29605
(864) 242-1144

Order of Service

Rev. W. Lavelle McCray, Presiding
Pastor, Rocky Mount Missionary Baptist Church

Prelude

Processional

Clergy, Family and Friends

Scripture Reading and Prayer

Rev. Kawamme Johnson

Solo

Mrs. Marsha McKinney-Campbell

Words of Comfort

Rev. Victor Gardner

Committal/Prayer/Benediction

Recessional