

Shirley,
I Know You Did All You Could Do

I know you did all you could do.
To help me make it through.
Now I am gone to take my rest
I know you love me but God loves me best.
So don't weep and mourn.
Just meet me around God's throne.
A place to grow richer in Jesus to hide
I needed the quiet so he drew me aside.
Love You, Greg

Acknowledgement

The visits you made comforted us,
The sustenance you brought, sustained us,
The messages and words, consoled us,
The flowers you sent brought joy to us,
The prayers you prayed lifted us.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much, whatever the part.

In this sad hour when our hearts are broken,
we find comfort in knowing that GOD is good.

He is in control.

We look to Him for the goodness, guidance, calmness, and strength we now desperately need.

Thank you for your visits, food, flowers, and your prayers
during our bereavement.

Obituary

Deacon Gregory Tyrone “Big G” Harris, 68, of Greenville, South Carolina, departed this life on Tuesday, January 7, 2020, at McCall Hospice House. He was a son of Mildred Dixon Tate and the late Joseph “Joe” Harris.

Greg Harris was a coach and mentor for many youth and helped shape their lives to become great men. He was a Drywall Specialist for 30 years, the entrepreneur/ owner of Harris Drywall. He was a passionate coach for the women’s softball and also played men’s softball.

He joined age an early age the Greater Mt. Calvary Baptist Church, where he served as a Deacon. He also enjoyed singing in several choirs of the church. He was one of the funniest and most charismatic men to ever walk the earth. He was transparent and never hesitated was ever afraid, “to tell it like it is”.

He loved his wife more than himself and cherished his family. He will truly be missed, but always remembered by all.

Surviving along with his mother, are his loving wife, Shirley Trapp Harris of the home; three daughters, Venus (Romeo) Acker of Biloxi, MS, Tiffany Harris of Simpsonville, SC, and Detra Harris of Greenville, SC; one son, Tywan (Diana) Harris of Atlanta, GA; one sister, Sandra Tate of Bridgeport, CT; four brothers, Larry Harris, of Bridgeport, CT, Calvin (Pandora) Tate of Arlington, TX, Ronald Tate of Greenville, SC, and Jeffrey Tate of Bridgeport, CT; eight grandchildren; two great-grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.
