Acknowledgements

The Smith Family wishes to express our sincere appreciation for all who sent cards, prayers, words of encouragement, contributions and kind gestures of love during our difficult time. Special thanks to Wren Hospice and staff for their support and care for our Mother during her final journey. May God richly bless each one of you and keep you in His care.

Please be advised that the Greenville County Sheriff's Department and the City of Greenville Police Department no longer provide escort services for funeral processions. Therefore, all drivers should obey traffic signals. Persons who are not riding in the funeral home limousines should meet the family at the cemetery.

God Knows Best

There is an open gate at the end of the road through which each must go alone, and there in a light we cannot see, Our Father claims His own. Beyond the gate your loved one finds happiness and rest, and there is comfort in the thought that a loving God know best.

Obituary

Mrs. Martha Ann "Mot" Smith, 86, of Greenville, South Carolina, passed on Wednesday, January 22, 2020, at her residence. She was a daughter of the late Garfield Bolden and Verna Williams Mahaffey.

She was educated in the Greenville County schools and was a former employee of MacShore Classics better known as Carolina Blouse.

Mother Smith was a member of Bethel Church of God Holiness, where she participated in different auxiliaries such as the Bethel Senior Choir and the Church Culinary Committee, and was Mother of the church. She also was a community representative for UNICEF.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Isaiah Smith; two sisters, Eliza Mae Bailey and Shirley Jean Smith; and two brothers, T.C. Owens and Fred Alvin.

Mother Smith leaves to cherish fond and loving memories, two daughters, Verna Marie Young and Crystal Dowdy, both of Greenville, SC; two sons, Eric Smith of Anniston, AL, and Veldon (Trudy) Smith of Woodruff, SC; seven grandchildren, Mark, Jamie, Courtney, Gregory, Alex, Montasia and Dimitri; eight great-grandchildren; and a host of other relatives and friends.
