Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that once we shared
Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the master plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me but let me go.

Acknowledgement

The family of Lakeshia Michelle Thompson wishes to thank you for your acts of kindness, prayers and support during the passing of our loved one. We wish to express our sincere appreciation for all the acts of kindness, love and concern shown to us during this time of bereavement. Pray for us that we may grow stronger in the Lord. May God bless you abundantly.

Please be advised that the Greenville County Sheriff's Department and the City of Greenville Police Department no longer provide escort services for funeral processions. Therefore, all drivers should obey traffic signals. Persons who are not riding in the funeral home limousines should meet the family at the cemetery.

Obituary

Ms. LaKeshia (Keshia) Michelle Thompson was born March 8, 1978, in Greenville, South Carolina, to the late Iris Lavonne Meekins Jackson and the late Wilbur Thompson, Jr. She transitioned to our Heavenly Father on February 18, 2020, at St. Francis Hospital Eastside.

Affectionally called “Kee-bone” by her late father, Keisha graduated from Wade Hampton High School in 1996, and studied Associate Health & Information Management at Greenville Technical College.

She enjoyed working in customer service, having previously worked at Tele Tech, Verizon and Alorica Call Centers. She would also prepare tax returns at Jackson Hewitt Tax Service. During her early years, at the age of 9, she was baptized at Saint Paul Baptist Church, where she attended and sang on the Youth Choir for many years.

She leaves the following loved ones to cherish many memories: a son, Braylyn Jaquan Whiteside; a brother, Cedric Jermaine (Tina) Thompson; her grandmothers, Crebell Patterson Meekins and Alberta Louise Hill Thompson; two aunts, Earlinda M. (Ernest) Adams and Sharon D. Thompson; two nieces Nikianna White and Cedriyonia Thompson; a nephew, Jakaden Thompson; two great-aunts; a great-uncle; two great-nephews; and a host of cousins and friends.

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

*When tomorrow starts without me,
please try to understand,
That an Angel came and called my name,
and took me by the hand.*

*The Angel said my place was ready,
In Heaven far above,
and that I'd have to leave behind
All those I dearly love.*

*But when I walked through Heavens gates,
I felt so much at home
When God looked down, smiled at me,
and told me “welcome home”.*

So when tomorrow starts without me,
