Acknowledgement

Words are inadequate to express the humbleness and gratefulness we feel toward all of our friends who have consoled us during the illness and passing of our loved one. Your prayers, love, presence and service have sustained us.

Your cards and gifts of food were warmly appreciated.

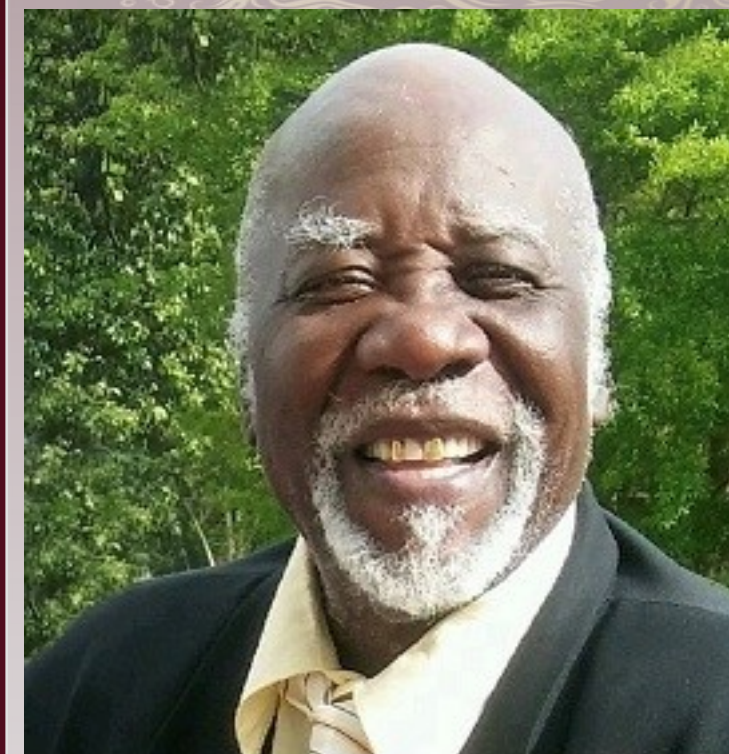

We saw all of these gestures as God's love expressed through you.

Obituary

Reverend Mack Hawkins, Jr., 77, of Greenville, South Carolina, departed this life on Monday, March 23, 2020, at Aiken Medical Center, Aiken South Carolina. He was born in Greenville on February 17, 1943, a son of the late Mack Hawkins, Sr., and Thelma Blakely Hawkins.

Rev. Hawkins attended Morris College, studying Theology, and began preaching the word of God at an early age. He was known to be a Bible Scholar. He pastored several churches and was an associate pastor of Pilgrim Rest Baptist Church. He retired from Pet Dairy in 2012.

He was married in May 1963, to Frances Owens Hawkins.

He was preceded in death by his parents; two daughters, Cynthia Hawkins and Lisa Mosley; and a sister, Hazel Hawkins.

Left to cherish many fond and loving memories are: his devoted wife, Frances Hawkins of the home; six daughters, Valerie (John) Harris, Judy (Booker) Moore, Lorain (Donnie) Heard, Delores Hawkins, Drena (Maurice) Brister and Sonya Mosley, all of Greenville; two sons, Mark Hawkins and Sammy Anderson, both of Greenville; one brother, Arthur Lee Hawkins of Columbia, SC; twenty-five grandchildren; twenty-eight great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and dear friends.

Dad,

We all love and miss you! You were a strong man who worked hard. You loved to teach others about the Word of God and when you spoke, people listened to what you had to say. You shared with others Godly wisdom in a very practical way.

The family is at peace knowing you are finally home where Jesus is sitting on His glorious throne. Dad, your parents are there, and daughters, too. No more hurting in sickness or pain. It's all gone. You've got your new name.

At times we may cry because we miss you so, but we know God is not finished. He's showing you more. There will be days when we're saddened and torn, but your presence and love-filled blanket will forever comfort and keep us warm. Lord, help us as we continue on. Never will you be forgotten in this life nor the one to come.

Thank you for the lessons you gave to all of your children. Thank you for the memories that will live on. We are so glad you are in heaven singing that brand new song.

Dad, we love and miss you!
