The visits you made comforted us,
 The sustenance you brought, sustained us,
 The messages and words, consoled us,
 The flowers you sent brought joy to us,
 The prayers you prayed lifted us,
 Whatever you did to console our hearts,
 We thank you so much, whatever the part.

Obituary

Mrs. Ruby Wilcox Hunt, 92, of Greenville, South Carolina, passed on Saturday, April 4, 2020, at her home. She was a daughter of the late Victor and Cassie Johnson Wilcox.

She was formerly employed at Greenville Hospital System and Greenville County School District. She was a faithful member of Antioch Missionary Baptist Church, where she served as a Deaconess, a member of the Willing Workers Club and sang in the choir.

She was preceded in death by her husband, William Gus Hunt; a brother, Theodore Wilcox and two sisters, Violena Corley and Patricia Hallums.

Left to cherish many fond and loving memories are four daughters, Ruby Ann Hunt of Greenville, SC, Georgia Wanita Hunt of Chesapeake, VA, Frances Cardelia Hunt of Greenville, SC, and Rev. Janet Hunt Jones of the home; one son, Percy Donnell (Lois) Hunt of Greenville, SC; fifteen grandchildren; twenty-four great-grandchildren; a brother-in-law, Rev. Willie Hunt of Charleston, SC; her goddaughters, Betty Ramsey, Patricia Mayes and Margaret Blankley; and a host of other relatives and friends.

From Mother

*Be encouraged my daughters and my son,
The victory is mine; my race I have won.*

*I am home now with Jesus,
He talks daily with me;
My journey has ended,
My soul has been set free.*

*Let the life that I have lived
be a testimony to you;
Hold steadfastly to Jesus,
He brought me through.*

*Whenever you need me,
remember this day;
I am resting in Heaven
not too far away.*

*Always look up,
Don't tarry, you see;
Call faithfully on Heaven,
That is where I will be.*

*When your time has come
to do what you must do,
I will be at the River Jordan
to see you cross too.*

*I am happy now, children,
don't fret over me;
All my troubles have ceased,
My soul has been set free.*
