

Marilyn

That name Marilyn is beautiful, fun to be around,
will make you laugh,
loves to be happy
and always will be happy.
She believes in most everything.

Doesn't judge,
a nurturing woman to her family,
a very confident woman.

Proud of what she was,
"I know right" that name Marilyn is like her personality and that stride when she dance,
I put you in a trance inter world.

Now she's beyond the clouds,
with her laugh,
her jokes and stride, her pride and her heavenly wings.

Dancing beyond the clouds at the foot of the almighty king.

You will be truly be missed.

Ms. Marilyn

Poem by Sonya Parks

Celebrating the Life of Mrs. Marilyn Juanita Golden "MJG"

Saturday, May 9, 2020

3:00pm

Resthaven Memorial Gardens

Piedmont Highway

Piedmont, South Carolina 29673

Services Entrusted to Watkins, Garrett & Woods Mortuary, Inc.
1011 Augusta Street
Greenville, SC 29605
(864) 242-1144

Order of Service

Rev. Fredrick Golden, Sr., Presiding

Processional

Solo

Mrs. Vanessa Gallaman

Scripture Readings

Old Testament.....Mr. Ernest Burgess

Long Branch Baptist Church

New Testament...Rev. Wayne Robinson

Piedmont Manor Baptist Church

Prayer

Mrs. Marian Arnold

Remarks

Mrs. Marian Arnold (Niece)

Mrs. Natalie Haygood (Friend)

Mrs. Sharon Martin (Sister)

Solo

Pastor Tevin Smith
Mt. Olive Baptist Church

Words of Comfort

Rev. Michael L. Golden

Committal/Prayer/Benediction

Recessional

Obituary

Ms. Marilyn Juanita "MJG" Golden, 63, of Greenville, South Carolina, passed away on Saturday, April 25, 2020, at her home. She was a daughter of Mildred Meekins Golden and the late Willie Golden.

She was a graduate of Southside High School and was employed at Poinsett Rehabilitation Center. She attended Lincoln Street Baptist Church.

She was preceded in death by her husband, George A. Johnson; two sisters, Ethel Hawthorne and Sylvia Golden; a godmother, Christine Lindsey; two godbrothers, James (Buck) Lindsey and Willie Pruitt.

Left to cherish many fond and loving memories are her mother, Mildred Meekins Golden of Greenville; three daughters, Amanda Golden, Jan (Tyrone) Callway and Andrea Thompson, all of Greenville; three sons, Robert Golden, Gerald Golden and Travis Byrd, all of Greenville; eight sisters, Sharon (Richard) Martin of Simpsonville, Elaine Golden of Greenville, and Phyllis (Robert) Burton of Piedmont, Lillian Garnett, Connie (Charlie) Turner, Earlene Lindsey, Henrietta Sherman and Rosetta Sherman; all of Greenville; three brothers, Lawrence (Shelly) Golden of Lyman, Rufus (Debra) Golden of Greenville, and Gregory (Rachel) Lindsey of Simpsonville; one grandchild, Zachary Golden; sisters-in-law, Rebecca Johnson and Velda Mae Bailey, both of Greenville; brothers-in-law, John C. Johnson of Simpsonville, Alvin Johnson and Boyce Johnson, both Greenville; god-grandchild,, Tyleck ; two special friends, Dwight McCombs and Bobbie Jameson; and a host of other relatives and friends.

