My Time Has Come

My time has come to return back home.
I know right now this seems too hard to bear

But knowing nothing can ease the love that we share.

Through the good and bad
we have weathered it all.

But now my time has come to answer His call.

The time will come that I'll see you all face to face.

But for now love each other and live your life for true.

For time will come
That the call will be you.

Obituary

Mrs. Mattie Mae Samuels (“Granny”) daughter of the of the late Louis and Annie Mae Brockman, was born March 12, 1937, in Spartanburg, South Carolina. She fought a good fight and kept the faith until October 27, 2020, when the Lord called her home.

She retired from National Carbon where she was a dedicated and dependable worker.

Granny accepted a call from God into the Food Ministry at Mount Pleasant Community, she cooked food for the homeless, every Tuesday and delivered plates to the elderly in the community. Granny worked diligently to be a good steward.

She dedicated more than 30 years to her church, Mt. Zion Christian Fellowship, which is now Bridgeway. Besides being the Matriarch in her family she made her presence known as she attended church and social activities dressed from head to toe.

In addition to her parents she was preceded in death by her husband, Johnny Samuels, Jr.; her son, Johnny Samuels, III; and a granddaughter, Tasha Nicole Hawkins.

She leaves to cherish memories of her blessed life: two sons, Willie Edward Samuels of Baltimore, MD and John (Vickey) Samuels of Greenville, SC; four devoted daughters, Patricia Samuels of Greenville, SC, Debra (David) Jones of Newnan, GA, Veronica (Willie) Nedwards of Piedmont, SC, Teresa (Rev. Michael) Thurmond of Greenville, SC; twenty-one grandchildren; forty great-grandchildren; eight great-great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, an a ever-widening circle of goddaughters, godsons and adopted sisters.

Her presence will never be forgotten and the imprint she left on our hearts will go on forever.
