Eloyse's Life...

On the night of June 29, 2020 in Fayetteville, North Carolina, God looked from the heavens and called home one of his beloved children to receive her heavenly reward. ELOYSE MARIAN JOHNSON BARNHART was born in Springfield, Massachusetts September 1, 1935 to the late Marian and Charles Johnson. She was married to James Napoleon Barnhart for 39 years until his demise on April 15, 2015.

She enjoyed playing racquetball at the Sports Center. She loved sewing, knitting, baking and spending time with family and friends. Eloyse was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, and great grandmother. To many she was known as “Nana” or “Gigi.” She opened her home to many. Her home was everybody’s home and everyone felt welcomed. On her earthly journey, she planted seeds that will continue to grow in the hearts of her extended family members and friends. Friends to her were like priceless jewels. She cherished every moment that she spent with them. The love she received gave her strength to endure many storms in her life. Through it all, she did not complain. Our beloved was concerned about others despite the trials and tribulations she endured throughout her journey. She donated to charities such as the Cancer Center, St Jude Children’s Research, ASPCA, Feeding America, Paralyzed Veterans of America, Disable Veterans, and American Heart Association.

Eloyse was truly a hero and the wind beneath our wings. She had a heart of gold which she shared unselfishly with others. May the work that she’s done, the service she gave, and the life she lived speak for her!

She leaves to cherish her loving memories, “Her girl”, guardian, Kataya Baldwin Randall; Attorney Sharon Keyes (Jeff); best friend, Virginia Baldwin; supporter, William Alexander and her extended family for life (The Baldwin Family).

I'M FREE

“TO THOSE I LOVED AND THOSE WHO LOVED ME”

*Don't grieve for me for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call;
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I found my place at the close of the day.*

*If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too shall miss*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow;
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savoured much;
Good friends, good time, a loved one's touch;*

*Perhaps my life seemed all too brief:
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me;
God wanted me now. He set me free.*
