

A piece of our heart lives in Heaven

Treasured SEASONS

For everything there is an appointed season,
And a time for everything under heaven
A time for sharing, a time for caring,
A time for loving, a time for giving;
A time for remembering,
a time for parting. You have made everything beautiful in its time. For everything you do remains forever.

Mimi’s Life...

MIRIAM “MIMI” WRIGHT was born on November 19, 1982 in Buffalo, New York to the late Willie Earl Edwards and Rosemary Abdelaziz. She transitioned on October 20, 2020 at Cape Fear Valley Hospital. Mimi is what she was affectionately called by family and friends.

MIMI attended Eree County Public Schools and later moved to Hoke County and graduated from Hoke County High School. Mimi attended several online nursing classes. She went on to work at Womack Army Hospital in 2008 and later began her employment at Cape Fear Valley Hospital where she was employed for over five years.

MIMI was the baby of three siblings. She was dearly loved by her mom and dad, sisters and brother. She was daddy’s baby girl. Mimi was always the life of the party and loved making people laugh.

She lit up the room with her beautiful smile when she walked into the room. Mimi loved music and loved to read. She belonged to a couple of book clubs. Mimi loved the beach, it was her favorite place to get away. Mimi loved to get together for family occasions; she was the hostess for all the cookouts and dinners.

MIMI leaves to cherish her amazing memories with: her husband, Ellis Wright, her loving children, Elijah Wright of Florence, SC; Miriah Wright, Nehemiah Wright and Jaylan Quinn all of Fayetteville, North Carolina; one grandson, Messiah Wright; sisters, Natasha Buster and Aethena Edwards and brother, Demire Edwards all of Buffalo, New York; sisters-in-law, Talisha Wright and Shiona Profit; her favorite nieces, Nadea Boles aka (Bunns), Ava Rose Rivera aka (Louise) and Zion Washington (aka Zy); her devoted friends; a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, family, friends and other relatives.
