*A limb has fallen from the family tree.
I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me.
Remember the best times, the laughter, the song,
The good life I lived while I was strong.
Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.
Keep smiling and surely, the sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease, my soul is a rest.
Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.
Continue traditions, no matter how small.
Go on with your life, don't worry about falls.
I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin,
Until the day comes, we're together again."*

"On the wings of a dove,

*my soul
soars to Heaven
above."*

Reflections of Life

1932 – 2020

Mildred McNeal was born on November 11, 1932, in Lillington, North Carolina, the fifth child of Bernice and Mary McKoy. Mildred received her education in Lillington and Fayetteville, North Carolina.

In 1957, Mildred married John Marvin McNeal. They moved to St. Albans, New York. Two years later, they welcomed their bundle of joy, daughter, Theresa.

The couple loved children and played an important part in the rearing of several. In fact, this love, care, and concern led Mildred to a job at Children's Village in Dobbs Ferry, New York. It was clear that God saw this spiritual gift in her and fulfilled His word in Jeremiah 29:11: "For I know the plans I have for you...plans to prosper you...to give you hope and a future." Mildred was indeed prosperous; many with whom she came in contact have been blessed by her ministry.

The time came for Mildred and John to leave the hustle and bustle of New York. They relocated to Fayetteville, North Carolina. Mildred joined Deliverance Temple Word of Faith Christian Center, where she was very active until the very end. She was part of the Food Bank Ministry and a faithful member of the noon day prayer service. She was the Mistress of Ceremonies for the First Sunday worship services, often delivering the message.

Traveling with her sister, Mary, was one of Mildred's greatest joys. For over twenty years, they cruised to various places, including the Caribbean Islands, Alaska, and Hawaii.

Quietly on Tuesday, November 3rd, Mother, Evangelist, and Prayer Warrior Mildred Beatrice McNeal answered God's call to come home. She is preceded in death by her husband; her parents; her three brothers, Clarence, Lee Edward, and Alonzo; and sister, Otis.

To cherish her memory, a daughter, Theresa; grandchildren, Charia and Nirupa (Gull); great-grandchildren, Heaven, Hasain, Halees, and James; great-great-grandchildren, Chance and Isabella; sister, Mary Helen Brandon; a devoted friend, Mother Annie Johnson; and a host of other relatives and friends.
