THE FAMILY OF LINDA “WOMAN OF GOD” KING

Linda’s “Woman of God” Life...

LINDA GRACE MORRISEY KING, affectionately called Lindy, was born February 13, 1955 and transitioned this life, to be with our Heavenly Father on Thursday, December 17, 2020, at her residence in Fayetteville, North Carolina.

LINDA was the fourth child born to Joe Nathan (preceded in death) and Ms. Charity Morrisey, currently residing in Fayetteville, North Carolina.

Growing up, she attended several schools: Turkey Elementary, Hargrove High and Union High School. Linda worked at various jobs during her teen years to earn extra money. She was a very vivacious, child and enjoyed life to the fullest. She had many hobbies including that of being an excellent artist who loved to draw, and she was also an excellent seamstress. Linda could just look at any outfit, envision the idea of how to make it, and put it together without a pattern design. Her wardrobe was always filled with unique design and very bright and bold color patterns.

While attending high school, Linda loved to mischievously play pranks. These harmless pranks that Linda carried out many times, always made an indelible mark and lasting impression on her teachers. To her younger siblings, many of her teachers would often remark: “do you have another sister—one named Linda Morrisey? you look familiar”?

She was a happy, joyful person who could make you laugh with side-splitting jokes about almost everything. Her Mom, Charity, would always make sure that her girls would dress modestly. But on so many occasions, when Linda arrived at school, she was changing her outfits to short skirts or just whatever she liked for that day; and then change back to the modest outfit before returning home. When her parents left for appointments, Linda would turn on “Soul Train,” get to dancing, and dare any of her other siblings to tell our Mom. She was feisty and always kept things always interesting.

LINDA accepted her Lord Jesus Christ early in life and began her 47-year gospel ministry as an Evangelist, Prophetess, and Pastor. She loved praying for others, casting out demons, laying hands on the sick, and performing many miracles in the name of Jesus. She credits her introduction to Jesus to her mother, Charity Morrisey, who instilled those values in her while growing up. She was a true gifted teacher, preacher, singer, and visionary. Everyone who came across her path was blessed and strengthened by the Word of the Lord that she so accurately delivered. Her anointed voice and her beautiful presence will be truly missed. Linda’s love will always be with us.

She leaves to cherish her memories, her devoted husband of 46 years, James Arthur King, her mother, Ms. Charity Morrisey, 6 lovely daughters, Ka-Tesha, Ta-Shiena, Ro-Shonda, Veetra, Na-Keeda and Sha-yetta (David); and one son, Jarick, of the home. 8 grandchildren, Jah-Nyra, Tre-Quan, Cierra, Laiciana, Kaori, Kian, LaDarius and David, Jr. 9 siblings, Janie, Joe Nelson (preceded in death), Daniel, Theresa, Ricky, Gwen, Katrina, Tammy and LaTonja, and a host of other relatives, and friends whom she loved dearly. LINDA ‘WOMAN OF GOD’ KING will be forever embedded in our hearts and memories. You will never be forgotten. We will take what you taught each of us about life, love, and JESUS in our hearts forever. We love you and miss you!!
