

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me,
and I'm not here to see, if the sun should rise and find your eyes filled with tears for me, I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today while thinking of the many things we didn't get to say.
I know how much you love me, as much as I love you,
and each time you think of me, I know you'll miss me, too, but when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand that Jesus came and called my name and took me by the hand and said my place was ready in Heaven far above and that I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love.
So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart, for every time you think of me,
I'm right here in your heart.

Life Reflections

Richard Adolphos Beckford was born on November 28, 1930, to the union of Naomi and Caslie Beckford in Cambridge St. James, Jamaica. Richard was the oldest child out of eight siblings.

Richard Beckford received his formal education at Cambridge Primary in St. James. Richard accepted Christ as his Savior at Holy Faith Episcopal Church at an early age. He served in New York and Port St. Lucie as a dedicated choir member.

Richard was united in holy matrimony with Leasa Kinlock on June 30, 1958, in Kingston, Jamaica. Their union was blessed with one son, Randolph. In Richard's leisure time, he enjoyed playing dominoes.

He was employed by Amalgamated Transit Union of New York as a school bus driver for 20 years. Richard was a Justice of the Peace for St. Lucie County, and he also was a member of the Masonic Lodge in Bronx, New York, and a member of the Cricket and CACG club in Port St. Lucie, Florida.

Richard Adolphos Beckford departed this life on Tuesday, January 5, 2021. He was preceded in death by his parents, four brothers, and three sisters.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his devoted wife of over 60 years, Lease; one son: Randolph; five grandchildren; and 6 great grandchildren.

FARTHER ALONE

Tempted and tried we're oft made to wonder Why it should be thus all the day long While there are others living about us Never molested though in the wrong

[Chorus]

Farther along we'll know all about it Farther along we'll understand why Cheer up my brother live in the sunshine We'll understand it all by and by

[Verse 2]

*When death has come and taken our loved ones
 It leaves our home so lonely and drear
 And then do we wonder why others prosper Living so wicked year after year*

[Chorus]

*Farther along we'll know all about it
 Farther along we'll understand why
 Cheer up my brother live in the sunshine
 We'll understand it all by and by*
