

MISS ME – BUT LET ME GO

When I come to the end of the road And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room. Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little—but not too long And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared Miss me—but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.

Miss Me – But Let me Go!

Obituary

Marsha Lynn Clark born February 18, 1940 to William Jones and Vera Melrose Jones-Moore, passed away on January 24, 2021. Marsha grew up in Toledo, Ohio, graduated from Scott High School, and was a proud retiree from Jeep/Chrysler. Marsha will be remembered for her love of basketball and BINGO. She spent many nights entertaining herself with one of several recordings of the Laker championship games. Family lovingly referred to the local BINGO halls as her second home. Marsha was a glamour girl and had a way of making every nephew think he was her favorite.

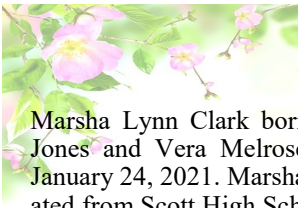

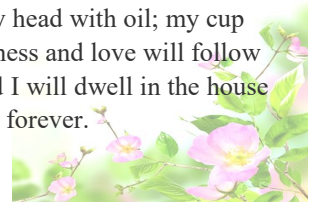

She was greeted in heaven by her parents Vera & William Jones, husband Melvin Clark, daughter Kimberly Clark, brothers William Jones, Eugene Jones, Wesley Jones, Terrence Jones, Sisters Martha Parker, Judith Woods, and Vera (Sunday) Jones. Left to mourn her loss are her sons Melvin Duane Clark & Patrick Clark of Columbus, Ohio. Daughters Roxanne Jones (Luther Jones) and Kelly Clark. Grandchildren Antwon Clark, LaKesha Clark, LaKia Clark, Kristopher Jackson, Kirsten Echols, Malcom Clark, and Bobby Dole Jr. Great grandchildren Antwon Clark, Jr., Malikai Clark, Aniyah Clark, and Ruby Clark. And way too many nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Psalms 23

The LORD is my shepherd, I lack nothing. He makes me lie down in green pastures, he leads me beside quiet waters, he refreshes my soul. He guides me along the right paths for his name's sake. Even though I walk through the darkest valley, I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies. You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows. Surely your goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.
