23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul;
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil;
for Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff, they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life;
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Celebrating the Life of Our Beloved Birdie Mae Thomas

Birdie Mae Thomas was born on November 27,1934, to the union of Ed Coachman and Bertha Mae Coachman in Cairo, Illinois. She moved to Toledo, Ohio in 1950 with her family while still a young child.

Birdie accepted Christ as her Lord and Saviour at a young age and was baptized at The Family Baptist Church by Pastor Charles H. McBee, Senior Pastor. Birdie worked numerous jobs to provide for her family. Her beautiful personality could light up a room. Everyone loved her presence and she will forever be remembered by her honesty, love, and graceful character.

Birdie Thomas departed life suddenly on Tuesday, February 2, 2021. She was preceded in death by her parents, a total of 11 siblings, late husband Daniel Thomas, son Collois Coachman, grandson Carlos Coachman, and three great granddaughters.

She leaves to cherish her memory: children, Karen Coachman, Nathaniel Coachman, and Jacqueline Coachman all of Toledo, OH; grandchildren; great grandchildren; life long friend of the R&A Cab Company, Mr. Roberts; and a host of other relatives and friends.

One Little Rose

I would rather have one little rose
From the garden of a friend,
Than to have the choiciest flowers
When my stay on earth must end.

I would rather have a pleasant word
in kindness said to me,
Than flattery when my heart is still
And this life has ceased to be.

I would rather have a loving smile
From friends I know are true,
Than tears shed around my casket
When this world I bid adieu.

Bring me all the flowers today,
Whether pink, or white, or red,
I'd rather have one blossom now
Than a truckload when I'm dead.
