

William Joseph was born north of Gladstone, in the family farm house, on May 19, 1926, the son of Kasper and Katherine (Grossman) Tormaschy. As a young boy, he attended country school north of Gladstone. At the age of 19, he became an army soldier serving his country during WWII in the Aleutian Islands in Alaska. He served in 1945 and was honorably discharged in 1946. Following his service, William returned home to Gladstone where he was a farmer most of his life. On May 28, 1951, William married Dorothy Miller at St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Dickinson. Their marriage was blessed with three sons and a daughter. William enjoyed making old fashioned buggies and he was a volunteer at the Dickinson Museum and Prairie Outpost Guide. William is survived by his wife, Dorothy of 68 years; daughter, Delores (Glenn) Amundson of Williston; sons, Willard (Luane) of Dickinson, Walter (Tracy) of Gladstone, Warren (Vicki) of Dickinson; eight grandchildren, nine great-grandchildren; brothers, Richard of Dickinson, Ralph of Manning. He was preceded in death by his parents, Kasper and Katherine Tormaschy; sisters, Frances (Christ) Freer, Caroline (Gene) Martin; brother, Victor (Lucille); sisters-in-law, Marie and Alina Tormaschy; half-brother, George (Lorene) Grossman.

To the One I love

*I write this to you
In apology
That in your final moments
I couldn't take you
To the places you wanted to be
But I will tell you this
You are a sunrise
Radiant even as you set
Thus I promise you
When the time comes
You will return home
On your own
Where you will become a star
The kind that always glows
Whether the clouds too thick
Or the lights too bright
I will find you
In all that you've loved
-Whitney Tormaschy*
