

Greg Torgerson was born November 10, 1953 to Duane and LeoraBelle (Larry) Torgerson in Tioga, ND. He was raised in Tioga and attended Tioga High School. He went ND State School of Science in Wahpeton, ND for auto body. Greg worked various jobs throughout his life-Tioga Air Heaters, Tioga Swabbing and then moved to Colorado and worked at Metal Packaging for many years. He then moved to Dickinson and became a part of the Steier Oil Field Service family. He loved working in the patch and was very proud of the work he did. When one thinks of Greg, you think of a kind, loving, soft hearted soul, and generous to a fault, sometimes to his own detriment. Family was important to Greg. He loved family gatherings and playing pinochle. Greg came over every morning and played a game of pinochle with his mother-they even kept score on who was ahead. His nieces and nephews were very important to him as he had no children of his own. His love extended to a special young man, whom he helped raise. Greg's passion in life was music, cars, WWE, pinochle and women, not necessarily in that order. He loved getting together with friends, especially his friends who were like a second family at the Southside, where he would go for camaraderie and of course sharing stories. Greg could entertain you with his stories for hours. The Heavenly Father decided Greg should celebrate his 66th birthday at his eternal home instead of in the ICU and brought him home. Greg is survived by his mother, LeoraBelle "Larry" Torgerson, Dickinson, ND; brothers, Miles (Ann) Torgerson, Whitewood, SD, Lary (Nancy) Torgerson, Tioga, ND and a sister, Lee (Ken) Steier, Dickinson; and numerous nieces, nephews and friends. Greg was preceded in death by his father, Duane and a nephew, Lance.

ARRANGEMENTS BY

Stevenson Funeral Home
Dickinson, North Dakota

Lunch will be served at the funeral home
following the funeral service.
Everyone is welcome.

When I come to the end of the day
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.

Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little, but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love we once shared –
Miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.

It's all a part of the Maker's plan,
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart

Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds –
Miss me, but let me go.
