

Cordell Ronald Strommen, was born November 6, 1977 in Dickinson, ND, the son of Ronald K. Strommen and Sandra (Lutz) Strommen. As a young boy, he grew up on the family farm 5 miles west of New England. He attended New England High School graduating in 1996. While in school he enjoyed playing basketball and baseball. Cordell attended school at Dickinson State and later worked for Regent Grain. He later moved to Bismarck to study Power Process Technology at Bismarck State College. He worked for Shell in California for several years returning to Bismarck to work for Tesoro's Mandan Refinery. Cordell made Dickinson his home where he was a Process Specialist at the Marathon Oil Dickinson Refinery. Cordell enjoyed traveling, especially with his brother, Curtis. He cherished his time with them and never missed a game or activity they were involved in. Being a Godfather for Hunter, Dylan and Izy was important to him. He loved dogs and "secretly" cats, and was always willing to care for his family's pets when needed. Cordell's nickname was "Shark," given to him by Grandpa Strommen, who shared the same mischievous smirk as Cordell. Cordell enjoyed being with his friends, both far and near. Phone calls were always welcome with his phrase of "watcha doing". It was never his words, but his "Smirk" that was enough to tell you that he was happy and having a good time. For those who knew Cordell knew he was an honest and trustworthy friend, that truly cared about those closest to him. Always willing to lend a helping hand when asked. The Broken Chain

We didn't know that morning
God was going to call your name...

In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.

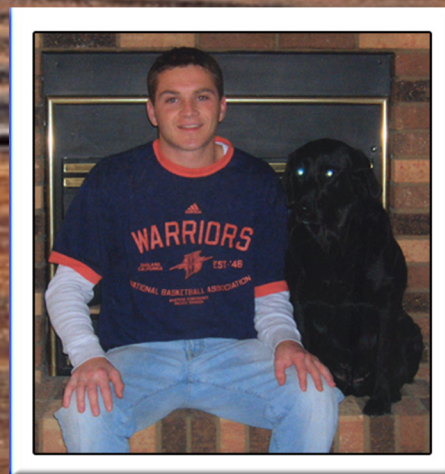

It broke our hearts to lose you,
you did not go alone;

for part of us went with you
the day God called you home.

You left us beautiful memories,
your love is still our guide;

and though we can not see you,
you are always by our side.

Our family chain is broken,
and nothing seems the same;
but as God calls us one by one,
the chain will link again.
