

Irene

was born in Harvey, ND on March 31, 1943, the daughter of Andrew and Annabelle (Vincent) Seltvedt. Growing up she attended school in Harvey and graduated in 1961. She continued her education at Augsburg College in Minneapolis and graduated from Minot State College in 1965. Irene taught German and Social Studies at Harvey High School for a few years. On October 25, 1973, Irene married Stephen Yost in her hometown of Harvey. The couple moved to Carrington where they lived for 15 years and Irene worked as an office manager at the vet clinic. Their marriage was blessed with a son, James and daughter, Elizabeth. Irene and Stephen moved the family to Dickinson in 1991, where they owned and operated Yost Veterinary Clinic until 2013. Irene was a vital part of the success of the vet clinic and missed by many when they retired. In her free time, she enjoyed gardening and photography. Irene is survived by her husband, Stephen; son, James; daughter, Elizabeth; brothers, David (Joann) Seltvedt, Lowel (Kathy) Seltvedt, Kenneth (Michelle) Seltvedt, Leland Seltvedt; sisters, Kristi Janson, Gloria Seltvedt; three grandchildren, Anna Glick, Maren and Mason Yost. She was preceded in death by her parents, Andrew and Annabelle Seltvedt; sister Rosiland.

In Our Hearts

We thought of you today.
But that is nothing new.
We thought about you yesterday.
And days before that too.
We think of you in silence.
We often speak your name.
Now all we have are memories.
And your picture in a frame.
Your memory is our keepsake.
With which we'll never part.
God has you in his keeping.
We have you in our heart.
