

Loretta Lange was born in Bismarck on June 11, 1945 to Leonard and Maise (Haston) Lange. Loretta was the second of nine children. Loretta lived with her family until she moved to Grafton State School at twelve years of age. At the age of 44, Loretta moved to Dickinson. Through supports with ABLE, Inc., Loretta enjoyed many activities and built strong relationships with new friends. Loretta's greatest joys were a soothing song, a great meal shared with friends, and a clean home. Loretta taught many life lessons to those that surrounded her. She reminded others to have resiliency, be honest with others, and find strength in small moments. Loretta is survived by her siblings, Larry (Ruby) Lange of Nebraska, Ruth (Pete) Carr of South Dakota, Rose (Tom) Hanwell of North Dakota, Leonard (Vicki) Lange of North Dakota, Carl Lange of Arkansas, Janet Lange of North Dakota, Alvin Lange of North Dakota, Betty Lange of North Dakota; and Uncle Paul (Louise) Lange of North Dakota and Aunt Norma Lange of Nebraska. She was preceded in death by her parents.

God saw she was getting tired
And a cure was not to be,
So He put His arms around her
And whispered, "Come with Me."

With tearful eyes we watched her suffer

And saw her fade away,
Although we loved her dearly
We could not make her stay.

A golden heart stopped beating
Hard working hands to rest,
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.
