

Angeline, the daughter of Frank and Minnie Schmidt, was born December 2, 1935 in a sod house built by her parents, 22 miles northwest of Dickinson, ND. Angie attended her first year of school in country school north of the farmstead. The second and third year of school, Angie lived with her grandmother Magdalena Schmidt and attended St. Joseph Catholic School. She lived with her grandfather Joseph Hushka during her fourth and fifth grade and with Tony and Eleanore Schmidt for her sixth and seventh grade. In 1949, the farmstead was sold and the family moved to Dickinson. Angie graduated from Dickinson High School in 1954. On October 9, 1958, Angeline and Henry Schank were married at St. Joseph Catholic Church in Dickinson. Hank and Angie were blessed with three children; Pamela, Russell, and Kelly. Angie worked for Horstman Studio for 22 years painting portraits, a profession she loved. She loved doing volunteer work for various organizations. Angie was involved with the Mrs. Jaycees for many years, helped with organizing the "Taste of the West" for the Sacred Heart Monastery and helped with organizing St. Benedict's Health Care Center's "Candlelight Dinner." Angie was a member of St. Patrick's Catholic Parish where she served as a Eucharistic Minister, a member of the Worship committee, decorating committee and the environment committee. Angie also discovered a love of traveling and was able to make three trips to Medjugorje with Deacon Ron Keller and a trip to Rome with her sister, Bernie. She had amazing experiences on each trip and would have loved to continue seeing the world. Angie is survived by her husband Henry of 62 years; two daughters, Pamela (Dennis) Long of Thornton, CO and Kelly (Ken) Potts of Westminster, CO, one son, Russell (Karla) Schank of Dickinson; four grandchildren, Garrett (Sarita) Schank of Houston, TX, Kaylee (Jared) Hofland of Taylor, and Lindsey and Morgan Potts of Westminster, CO; three great-grandchildren, Juliette Schank, Hudson and Bostyn Hofland; one sister, Bernie Horst of Laramie, WY. She is preceded in death by her parents, Frank and Minnie Schmidt; brother, Dale Schmidt; sister and brother-in-law, Dorothy and Bob Jones; and brother-in-law, Bob Horst.

My Rosary Beads

*A little pair of Rosary Beads,
As plain as plain can be,
But only God in Heaven knows,
How dear they are to me.
I have them always with me,
At every step I take,
At evening when I slumber,
At morning when I wake.
In bright and cloudy weather,
In sunshine or in rain,
In happiness or in sorrow,
In pleasure or in pain,
It helps me in my struggle,
It reproves me when in sin,
It's look of gentle patience,
Rebukes the strife within.
In days of pain and anguish,
The greatest help I knew
Was to hold my rosary beads
Until I calmer grew.
So when the time approaches,
When I will have to die
I hope my little Rosary Beads,
Will close beside me lie.
That the holy name of Jesus
May be the last I say,
And kissing my sweet Rosary Beads,
My soul may pass away.*
