Remembering The Life Of Vernon SEAY

Vernon L. Seay affectionately known as “Von,” was born on August 3, 1950, in Moultrie, Georgia, to Arthur Seay and Georgia Mae Washington. He was a devoted Christian who embraced his faith at Now Word Church under the leadership of Pastor Keith “PK” Graham. Even when unable to attend services in person, Vernon remained steadfast in his spiritual journey by participating in virtual worship, reflecting his deep commitment to his beliefs.

Vernon received his formal education in the Moultrie School System and furthered his training at a Truck Driving School. He embarked on a distinguished career, contributing his skills to Randolph High School, Retama Park, and Montgomery Elementary, where he ultimately retired.

Beyond his professional endeavors, Vernon was cherished by his family and friends as a loving husband, father, grandfather, uncle, godfather, brother, brother-in-law, coworker, neighbor, and friend. He had a passion for fishing, playing pool and cards, walking, and riding his bike with his grandchildren. Vernon also took pride in maintaining his yard and assisting others with theirs. He cherished traveling to visit family members and spending quality time with his beloved wife, Anita. Their bond was inseparable; wherever one was, the other was sure to be found.

Vernon and Anita Anthony Seay were united in marriage and shared 42 years of companionship and love until his passing.

Throughout his life, Vernon was blessed with abundant love and joy. He was preceded in death by his parents, Georgia Mae and Arthur Seay; his sister, Shirley Price; his brother, Eddie T. Seay; his grandchildren, Ja'Michael Ray and Javon Hamilton; sister-in-law, Annie Seay; son-in-law, Kenneth Hargrove; brother-in-law, Calvin Wilson; and numerous nieces, nephews, other family members and friends. He leaves to cherish his memories his devoted wife, Anita Anthony Seay; sister, Brenda Faye Wilson; brother, Kenneth Seay, Sr.; daughters, Shavon Seay, Megan Seay, Jemeika Seay and Sharaven Seay; sons, Michael Hamilton (Shamelle), Anthony Seay and Dontay Seay; God children, Adrian Miller and Quinntroy Davis, Jr.; seventeen grandchildren, two great grandchildren; Evelyn Anthony, Felicia Anthony Moore (John) and Mark Anthony Roberts (Tonya) all of San Antonio, Texas; Fred Anthony Of North Carolina; Mark Anthony (Katherine) of San Antonio, Texas; Lenora Seay of Moultrie, Georgia and a host of other family members and friends.

VERNON L. SEAY'S LEGACY IS ONE OF UNWAVERING FAITH, DEDICATION TO FAMILY, AND A LIFE WELL-LIVED.

PRECIOUS MEMORIES

Husband IN HEAVEN

Although you sleep in Heaven now, you're not that far away.

My heart is full of memories and you're with me everyday.

*You lived your life with meaning,
and a smile upon your face.
A world that was full of happiness is now an empty place.*

*People say that only time will heal
a broken heart.*

*But just like you and me,
it has been torn apart.*

*I know you're at piece now
and in a place where you are free, meet me at the Pearly Gates when Heaven
calls for me.*

GRANDPA In Heaven

*They say there is a reason,
people say that time will heal,
But neither time, reason, nor season will change the way I feel.
All the days we use to share are gone,
but no matter what,
in my heart you will always be there.
The gates of memories will never close.
I will always miss you
more than anybody knows.
I will always carry your legacy Grandpa.
I love you and miss you everyday.
Until we meet again.*

Until WE MEET Again

*Even in the darkest days since we've been apart, Memories of all the times we shared help to warm my heart. Every day I miss the smile that no one can replace, but still, it brings me comfort in the sadness that I face. Life is full of mysteries that no one can explain, but I know some day, somewhere we will meet again.
Until we do, I'll find the strength to live through each new day. Grateful for the happy years before you went away.*
