"I'm Having The Time of My Life"

I'm having the time of my life right now, the battle is won, my faith was strong, my conscience clear and I've only just begun to live. To know the peace GOD promised me and the Joy of a job well done. I counted my Blessing along the way and thanked GOD each day. I'm having the time of my life right now.

For I never thought I would have a second chance such as the Lord has given me. To see with clearer eyes than I've seen, to know when I knocked, his hands will open the door. So be strong my loved ones with God's strength, and continue to be precious in my sight. Accepting all that he sends and know he is always right.

I'm having the time of my life now, Because I've shared everything with God each minute. I was here with you for he alone can read my heart and know what's within. He has made all things wonderful, Because He's my GOD and FRIEND.

Love You All,
Your Husband, Father, Grandfather,
Great Grandfather and Friend

Celebrating The Life of Kenneth Lloyd Robinson, Sr.

On Thursday, March 21, 2019, the Lord sent an angel from heaven to the bedside of Kenneth L. Robinson, Sr. and the angel whispered, "Kenneth, you have fought a good fight, you have finished your life's journey. You have kept the faith, come home to take your rest." He gazed into his wife's eyes and she said to him "I love you and I'll be okay", he extended his hand, his parents grabbed hold to it and said, "Welcome home Son." The angel presented him with his wings and said, "Well done, my child."

Kenneth was born on January 18, 1940 in Jacksonville, Florida. He was the devoted son of Chris and Polly Robinson (both deceased) and a loving husband to Ruby L. Robinson for 56 years.

After retirement he continued his passion in carpentry, as well as being a truck driver.
